Kewaunee County to Host Informational "State Biogas Project" Meeting

KEWAUNEE, WI – Kewaunee County is inviting the public to attend an informational meeting for locally elected officials with state agencies, regarding the proposed Integrated Anaerobic Digester System Program on Monday, February 20th at the Kewaunee County Fairgrounds.

Representatives from the Public Service Commission (PSC), Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) will present to and answer questions from officials of Kewaunee County, as well as Brown, Calumet, Door and Manitowoc counties and the public.

Those scheduled to speak at the meeting are Jeffrey Ripp (PSC), Clint Fandrich (PSC), Russ Rasmussen (DNR) and Sara Walling (DATCP). Discussion will include the RFP process, water quality and nutrient management.

The Monday, February 20th meeting will take place from 1:00PM-3:00PM at the Kewaunee County Fairgrounds - Expo Building.

The meeting will begin with a 30-45 minute presentation, immediately followed by questions from locally elected officials. Public questions will be addressed and answered on an informal basis after the meeting.

Those who wish to ask a question, must submit it in writing at the meeting or email it prior to the meeting to Clint Fandrich with the PSC at clinton.fandrich@wisconsin.gov.
